

Arthur Ostaszewski

Art is an Environmental Specialist with Michigan's Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy (EGLE). He has worn many hats in his 30 years with the State, including laboratory work in water and solids extraction, Fisheries / Water Quality / Aquatic Biologist duties, and currently is in the Hazardous Waste Section of Materials Management Division. Besides his duties under RCRA, he became EGLE's first FAA Part 107 Pilot and now coordinates EGLE's UAS Drone Program encompassing 6 environmental divisions, 30 pilots, and 28 aircraft. He is a graduate of Lake Superior State and Michigan State Universities.